	D
	7
3 January 1979	Thaining 3
Admiral Stansfield Turner Director of Central Intell Central Intelligence Agenc Washington, D. C. 20505	igence y
Dear Admiral Turner:
market Economics Department	cho assessment of the President's ram. My assignment with involves both a staff role in corporate planar operate planar operate.
market Economics Department ning, and participation in market prospects. The Comp with a broad exposure to co As Bob's experience also is the private sector participant international experience su assignment, our mid-level of course in management technial In addition, the various st Personnel Interchange offe with top government officia	ram. My assignment with tinvolves both a staff role in corporate planan on-the-line task force evaluating overseas pany has done everything possible to provide metorporate decision-making.  Is demonstrating, there is a genuine demand by pants in this program for people with strong such as we have in the agency. And in the right careerists could not ask for a better one year iques, program planning, personnel policy, etc. tudy seminars sponsored by the Commission on the similar amount of direct informal contents.
market Economics Department ning, and participation in market prospects. The Comp with a broad exposure to co As Bob's experience also is the private sector participinternational experience su assignment, our mid-level course in management techning addition, the various st Personnel Interchange offe with top government official Senior Seminar.	ram. My assignment with tinvolves both a staff role in corporate planar an on-the-line task force evaluating overseas pany has done everything possible to provide metaprorate decision-making.  Is demonstrating, there is a genuine demand by pants in this program for people with strong and as we have in the agency. And in the right careerists could not ask for a better one year iques, program planning, personnel policy, etc. tudy seminars sponsored by the Commission on a similar amount of direct, informal contact als and business leaders as the higher level
market Economics Department ning, and participation in market prospects. The Comp with a broad exposure to consider the private sector participant international experience sure assignment, our mid-level of course in management technical in addition, the various standard in the private sector participant in the private sector participant international experience sure assignment, our mid-level of course in management technical in addition, the various standard interchange offer with top government official Senior Seminar.  I appreciate the chance to	ram. My assignment with tinvolves both a staff role in corporate planar an on-the-line task force evaluating overseas pany has done everything possible to provide metorporate decision-making.  Is demonstrating, there is a genuine demand by pants in this program for people with strong and as we have in the agency. And in the right careerists could not ask for a better one year iques, program planning, personnel policy, etc. tudy seminars sponsored by the Commission on a similar amount of direct, informal contact als and business leaders as the higher level